NCAIED BOARD MAKES NEW APPOINTMENT

Phoenix, Arizona (January 24, 2008) -- The board of directors of the National Center for American Indian Enterprise Development (NCAIED) has announced today that Vice President of Strategic Growth, Scott Gregory has been appointed Acting President/CEO of the organization. Mr. Gregory has worked for NCAIED for more than 14 years and has extensive experience in non profit management as well as American Indian business development on a national level.

“I consider it a great privilege to serve in this role and to be a part of the tremendous team of professionals that work for this organization,” said Gregory. “We are all very excited about the upcoming Reservation Economic Summit Conference (RES 2008) & American Indian Business Trade Fair (March 3 – 6, 2008 at the Las Vegas Hilton) with great excitement and a renewed commitment to make this the biggest RES ever.”

Former President/CEO, Ken Robbins resigned December 31, 2007 in order to pursue other interests. The board of directors recognizes Robbins for his nearly 18 years of service and extends their best wishes for his success in the future.

Headquartered in Mesa, Arizona the National Center has 11 offices located nationally. For more information on NCAIED or the Reservation Economic Summit Conference & American Indian Business Trade Fair, please visit the website at www.ncaied.org or contact 800-4NCAIED.
